Learning Points

Pronouncing the word The

You pronounce the word "the" in different ways.

It is often pronounced "thee" before a vowel sound and "thuh" before a consonant sound. The sound differences help with the flow of speech.

Example: "thee" air vs. "the" scenery

When used for emphasis, the is always pronounced "thee" never "thuh".

It is the sound that is important, not the letter you use in writing a word. You use a long "thee" before a vowel sound, not always before a vowel.

You write	With	You say	Reason
the house	consonant h	thuh h ouse	consonant sound
the hour	consonant h	thee o ur	vowel sound
the university	vowel u	thuh y ouniversity	consonant sound
the umbrella	vowel u	thee u mbrella	vowel sound

Showing Interest and Surprise

You use these phrases and techniques to show interest and surprise in conversation:

Showing Interest	Showing Surprise
Oh? Oh, yeah? Really? Oh, really? Is that right? How fascinating/interesting!	Wow! Spectacular! Amazing! Get out of here! Unbelievable! No!

Examples:

• John: These are the ruins.

Tourist: Oh, really? How interesting!
